A LITTLE BIT MORE ABOUT ME...

I am a London based video editor, with 12+ years of expertise in crafting both long-form TV and short-form digital content. Throughout my career, I've honed my skills to seamlessly merge creativity with technical proficiency, with the sole aim of creating compelling narratives that captivate audiences.

In my free time I love all things Film and TV. Favourite director being Bong Joon-Ho, favourite genre - comedy, favourite TV show, atm must be Community. If I'm not watching, I like hiking and trying new things, currently - learning piano. :)
